Join us!

CSEPAC is a public body open to all interested persons in our community.

There is a public input session at every meeting. Public input is a time where community members can speak freely about their experiences, concerns, and questions related to special education.

CSEPAC uses public input to inform the recommendations made to school committee. Recommendations are related to special education programs, policies, and services.

Zen Den: A sensory friendly playspace

CSEPAC's Zen Den is a sensory friendly play space for children (and adults!) who need a place to relax during busy community wide events. For more information visit <https://chelmsfordsepac.weebly.com/zen-den.html>
